

Bribery and Corruption Policy

At NAS Corporation Limited we are committed to uphold all laws relevant to countering bribery and corruption in all jurisdictions in which we operate and take the United Kingdom Bribery Act 2010 as guidance in respect of this commitment in all dealings with our customers, suppliers and business associates.

Those included in this policy are listed below and applies to any operation / project, at anytime, anywhere in the world:

This is a non-exhaustive list.

- All employees and those contracted to NAS Corporation Limited.
- Its Customers and their Business Associates.
- Its Business Partners and Associates.
- Its Consultants.

All employees and those contracted to NAS Corporation Limited are required to report, without delay:-

- Financial Interests they have in external parties with anyone associated with NAS Corporation Limited, both personal and commercial.
- The offer and receipt of any business related gifts and / or hospitality invitations. NAS Corporation Limited actively prohibit and discourage its employees, those contracted to it and their family members, to accept business related gifts and hospitality worth more than £100 or its equivalent. If this is disregarded by any Customer, their Business Associate, its Business partners and Associates, its Consultants or its employees and those contracted to NAS Corporation Limited the relationship shall be terminated.
- The refusal to accept any business related gift or hospitality
- Any approaches of an improper nature by external parties or work colleagues.

It shall be a requirement that NAS Corporation Limited shall insist that its suppliers, customers and business associates shall have procedures in place to prevent and therefore curtail corrupt practices.

Dated January 2013